

Summit 2018

Fine Arts Rulebook

The Fine Arts competition is designed to give students an opportunity to develop talents and abilities to benefit their local church and God's kingdom. Serving in ministry does not require extraordinary talent, but we should be as excellent as possible in our service (Colossians 3:23).

That's why our adjudicators indicate areas of strength and comment on areas to improve. Our desire is to see all students use their God-given abilities to their fullest for the purpose of furthering God's kingdom through their local church.

The theme of Summit 2018 is "Reasons for Hope". The theme verse is 1 Peter 3.15-16. We are asking all of our participants to prepare their competition pieces centered on this theme verse. You will find a list of supplemental verses on our theme page.

There are four divisions in the Fine Arts competitions: musical, non-musical, visual arts and creative writing.

Musical categories: Piano, Instrumental, and Vocal.

Non-musical categories: Public Speaking and Expressive Arts.

Visual categories: Photography/Digital, Painting/Drawing, and 3-D (other)

Creative Writing

AWARDS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Scholarships will be awarded to the students who receive the highest score in each division. Trophies will be awarded to the top scores in each division as well. Directions on claiming scholarships are found at the conclusion of the rulebook.

GENERAL ENTRY GUIDELINES

Students may participate once in each of the four divisions (musical, non-musical, visual art and creative writing). Individual performances will be judged according to the criteria stated in the specific category descriptions. Performances will be ranked as Gold, Silver, Bronze and Participation according to their respective judging scales. Participants will receive a Fine Arts award corresponding to the rank they have achieved.

Judges Choice

Select Submissions from various categories will be invited to participate during the opening and closing sessions and the Fine Arts Showcase on Saturday afternoon. Invitations will be issued in advance of Summit so students can adequately prepare. An invitation to participate in Judges Choice does not imply winning a Scholarship Award.

MUSICAL DIVISION

The musical categories are the following:

Instrumental (solo/ensemble 2-6 students)

Piano

Vocal (solo/ensemble 2-4 students)

Note #1: Each competitor is required to submit 3 DVDs of his/her performance with 3 copies of the coversheet and 3 copies of the music. Competitors are strongly encouraged to check their DVDs to make sure that each works before they are submitted. All DVDs must be playable on a regular DVD player (e.g. DVD player and TV).

Note #2: If selected to perform at Summit under the Judges Choice, competitors are required to make arrangements for an on-site accompaniment.

Musical Competition Guidelines

Piano

1. Must submit 3 DVDs of performance, 3 photocopies of the music, and 3 coversheets. The DVD recording must be of a live performance in front of an audience. (Photo-copying music is legal under the U.S. Copyright Rules for adjudication purposes only).
2. Music not in Public Domain or an original composition must have a Publisher Release to record the performance. The Publisher Release must accompany DVD submission. Awana accepts no liability for violation of the copyright law by any entrant or accompanist.
3. It is mandatory for pieces to be memorized.
4. Each copy of music must have every measure numbered so that judges may be specific in their adjudicating.
5. Selections should be performed as printed, according to the music. This includes original compositions. Any deviations from the music need to be clearly noted and marked in each copy of the music.
6. Music selected for competition must be sacred. For the purposes of this competition, sacred music must be written for church and historically classified as "Sacred".
